The MacColl Family

Genealogy, and Record of Family Reunions

Introduction

James MacColl, son of Duncan MacColl and Mary MacCallum MacColl, died in May, 1914. His son Lorne remarked to his cousins Crissie Giesel and Anna Kreiman whom he met at his father's funeral, "It's too bad we have to wait for a funeral to become acquainted." This remark was later repeated in the presence of the writer and it was suggested that we arrange to hold a reunion of all the descendants of Duncan and Mary MacColl. Temporary officers were chosen and arrangements were made for the first reunion which was held at Lake Orion, Michigan on June 29th, 1915. About 75 attended, many of whom had not met each other before that time.

It was decided at the first meeting to hold a reunion every two years and that officers should be elected at each reunion consisting of President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and Historian. It was also decided to call the organization—The Duncan and Mary MacColl Family Tree—Duncan and Mary MacColl, the first generation to represent the trunk of the tree and their children the branches. One representative from each branch was chosen with the officers as the Council or executive committee to act on behalf of the descendants in the interim between meetings.

Each meeting has shown increasing interest and greater numbers in attendance. Programs have been arranged in keeping with the spirit and lives of the ancestors. At each gathering many traits and incidents are recalled of the character, habits and lives of Duncan and Mary MacColl, the first generation and of their children the second generation, only one of whom, Barbara Beatty, at this time, June, 1929, survives.

In order to preserve for the future descendants of these beloved ancestors some of their virtues, traditions and sacred memories and that a record of their posterity may be maintained, a committee was appointed at the reunion held in Port Huron, Michigan, in August, 1927 to compile and have published the genealogy and as much of the family history and records of the reunions as they deemed proper.

It is therefore in the hope that all those who are connected by blood or by marriage to these noble ancestors may emulate their virtues and Christian characters that this publication is prepared.

A. C. GRAHAM.

Preface

In compiling this booklet our object has not been at this time to write a complete auto-biography of the MacColl Clan, but rather to give the history of the reunions from 1915 to the present time and to narrate the interesting occurrences in the lives of the members in order that we may become better acquainted not only with those whom we see at our reunions, but with the absent cousins as well.

We realize that there are a number of incomplete records and also some errors in this history, but it is our desire that an improved booklet may be published after each second or third reunion.

It is the hope of this committee and the officers of the organization that when sufficient data concerning the descendants can be obtained and a definite knowledge of the antecedents gained, we may publish a full and creditable MacColl Genealogy.

We have used the original spelling of the MacColl name in this book. Through an accident in the making out of an insurance policy, Grandfather Duncan MacColl adopted the spelling "McColl" now used by so many of his descendants.

Through the efforts of Hugh G. MacColl, B.A., B.Sc., Christ's College, Cambridge we have been enabled to connect Duncan MacColl's forefathers with the Clan Cholla, The MacColls. The history of this clan is being ably traced by the following associate committee formed of representative MacColls:

"INTERLUDE"

The days grow shorter, the nights grow longer,
The headstones thicker along the way,
And life grows sadder, but love grows stronger
For those who walk with us day by day.
The tears come quicker, the laugh comes slower,
The courage is lesser to do or dare.
And the tide of joy in the heart runs lower
And seldom covers the reefs of care.
But all true things in the world seem truer,
And the better things of the earth seem blest;
And friends are dearer as friends are fewer,
And love is all as our sun dips west.
Then let us clasp hands as we walk together,
And let us speak softly in love's sweet tone,
For no man knows on the morrow whether
We two pass by, or but one alone.

LIFE OF DUNCAN MACCOLL

Duncan MacColl was a native of Argyleshire, Scotland. He became a sailor early in life and sailed on many seas and to both the East and West India Islands.

He married Mary MacCallum in Toronto, then called Little York, March 15, 1833 and settled on a farm in Beverly Township near Brantford, Ontario. Later he moved to the Third Concession, Aldboro Township, Elgin County, where he acquired several hundred acres of land and where he lived until his death in 1874.

During the oil excitement about the years 1865 to 1870 he engaged very extensively in the oil business on the banks of the Thames River. He was an active business man and very public-spirited. He held the office of Reeve of Aldboro Township and was also a Magistrate and was given the title of Squire MacColl.

He had a fair knowledge of law and medicine and was often called in sickness and in quarrels to settle domestic disputes. He was a member of the Baptist denomination and a firm believer in the Christian faith and frequently conducted Sunday School and religious services. He could also lead the singing and was an "all round handy leader" in the community.

He had sandy or reddish hair and beard and was sometimes called "Doun-athy Ruah" which means "Red Duncan." He was very jovial, fond of children, and of good company, tall and manly in his bearing, honorable in his dealings, cheerful and courageous in life under all circumstances, and in all respects, a real, true, typical Son of Scotland.

OBITUARY

"Died:—MacColl—In Aldboro, on the 22nd day of December, 1874, departed this life Duncan MacColl, esq., aged 65 years."

"The subject of the following biography was a native of Argyle, Scotland.

"He entered the sailor's life when he was sixteen years old and sailed all the oceans and principal seas, doubled all the notable capes, visited almost all the famous islands, and had become more or less acquainted with all the nations on our globe, a sort of Geography and Ethnology he was indeed.

"In 1833 Brother MacColl came to Toronto and whilst there, entered the married life with Miss Mary MacCallum, a help truly meet for him, and then, with the exceptions of a few trips on our lakes, exchanged the sailor's life for the farmer's life, and having spent eleven years between Toronto, Beverly, and Brantford, he finally settled in Aldboro in 1847, where he was soon raised to an influential position in municipal affairs.

"As a man, Brother MacColl was manly, brave, and magnanimous, of quick perception, fervent spirit, of a deep, acute, and discriminating understanding and of sound judgment. He would have been a foremost man had he been educated in the science and literature of our day.

"As a member of society, he was of a philanthropic, sympathetic, benevolent, generous, and sociable nature, of a warm and tender heart, and of obliging habits. He was honest in purpose, just in business, truthful in word, faithful in promise, upright in character, and impatient of everything base or treacherous.

"As a Christian, he professed the Truth in 1837 in Beverly, and in 1838 was baptized with his wife in Dundas Creek by Elder Miner. There being no church to join at the time in Beverly, and having shortly removed with his family to Brantford, he and his wife united with the Church in Oakland. Then, having settled in Aldboro, he joined the Newbury Church, but at the organization of the Church in Aldboro he withdrew and became one of the original members of the latter Church in whose fellowship he continued until his death. Brother MacColl had always a high appreciation of the Gospel institutions and privileges and had been liberal to Gospel support, zealous for the pure Truth of God, for the conversion of souls, and for the mutual love and edification of the Church. In his death the Church sustains a great loss, but our loss is his gain, he is now with Christ.

"He had been declining for two years and whilst using all available means for the recovery of his health, he was always happy and prepared to depart and be with Christ. While gradually he approached his end, and he realized his position, the more glorious became the love of God, the more precious appeared his Savior, and the more hopeful, peaceful, and happy he became. The Promises of God were to him like refreshing water, enlivening wine, nourishing milk, and strengthening bread. His only sorrow was that he did not serve his God and Savior better and his earnest exhortation to the living was, 'to faithfully serve Jesus.'"

LIFE OF MARY MACCALLUM MACCOLL

Mary MacCallum was born in Kintyre, Scotland. When eighteen years of age she emigrated to Canada with her grandmother, taking several weeks to cross the ocean in a sail-boat. They landed at Toronto, then called Little York. While on her voyage she was taken with that dreaded disease, small-pox, and she with others was placed in a remote part of the vessel and left to the mercy of the disease. She suffered much from lack of care, but being blessed with a sturdy constitution, and a cheerful and hopeful disposition, she overcame the disease.

One of the great events of that time was to meet the vessels as they came in from the Homeland. It was on one of these occasions that she met Grandfather soon after he had landed in Toronto. From what can be gathered from her own words, it was "love at first sight." Soon after, they were united in marriage and were true lovers until death parted them. Beginning their home life in Toronto, they sojourned for brief periods at Beverly, Brantford, and Tuscarora. They crossed the River Thames July 12, 1847 and settled in their forest home on the Third Concession of Aldboro. As one looks at the beautiful farms and homes today, one can have but faint conception of the hardship, labor, and deprivations of pioneer life. They had ten children, six sons and four daughters.

Much might be written on the life of Grandmother MacColl, but I will just mention a few outstanding characteristics and incidents that have made lasting impressions. She loved to read the lives of men who fought and lay down their lives for their country. One of her favorite books was "The Scottish Chiefs." It was a real pleasure to sit by the fireside and listen to her stories of the early pioneer days and of the many trying experiences they so bravely passed through. She was often found in the homes of sickness and sorrow, and no matter what the home life might be, if there was need, she was always ready to go and minister. It can be truly said of her that she served in the "hidden places."

Her faith in God and His Son, her Saviour, was strong. She loved the Bible and would often sit for hours reading its Precious Truths. She believed it to be the Living Word of God. When anyone went to her for counsel or advice, she would refer them to the Word of God as the only place to find comfort and wisdom. She lived and rejoiced to see many of her descendants become followers of the Savior, whom she loved.

What a day of rejoicing it will be for her and for us when we meet again in the Father's House in Heaven where death can never separate us. God grant that there may not be one missing at that Great Reunion.

OBITUARY

"Mary MacCallum MacColl was born in Kintyre, Scotland, September 5th, 1810 and died at the residence of her grandson, A. D. Patterson, Aldboro, December 8th, 1906, at the age of ninety-six years.

"When eighteen years of age she came to Toronto. She had four sisters and three brothers of whom, two sisters and three brothers and later her mother followed her to this country. Only one brother survives her, James MacCallum of Dorchester.

"About 1833 she was united in marriage to Duncan MacColl who died December 22nd, 1874, nearly thirty-two years after. She and her husband were neighbors of Nicholas Scott, John Campbell, the Lamont brothers, Alexander Campbell, and John Patterson.

"Mrs. MacColl was the mother of ten children, four daughters and six sons, the youngest dying soon after birth. Four of her children survive her, Hugh of Cass City, Michigan, Barbara of Galt, Ontario, Bruce of St. Edwards, Nebraska, and James of Grand Ledge, Michigan. The first two and last named were present during her last hours. Of her departed children, the following are the names, dates, and ages in the order of their deaths: John, 1856, aged eighteen years; Nancy Graham, 1871, aged twenty-six years; Mary Lahore, 1878, aged forty-two years; Rebecca Graham, 1882, aged forty-eight years; and Duncan D., 1892, aged fifty-two years. Her grandchildren number fifty-two, twenty-two granddaughters and thirty grandsons, six of whom performed the last loving service of bearers. Her great-grandchildren number seventy-one, thirty-eight great-granddaughters and thirty-three great-grandsons. She also had one great-great-grandson and one great-great-granddaughter.

"Her religious life dates back to about the time of her marriage or possibly earlier. She and her husband were at first members of the Presbyterian Church, but later, about seventy years ago, became members of the Beverly Baptist Church. They were members of the Newbury Church for a great many years. Then at the organization of the Aldboro Baptist Church they became constitutional members and continued in that fellowship until they were called to the Church Triumphant.

"The deceased was a person of positive convictions yet with such a retiring disposition and such consideration for others that she was enabled to retain perfect control of her own feelings. Her virtues shone with greater splendor in her own home and among her family and friends. She was always of a hopeful and cheerful disposition, ever looking on the bright side of life. Her frequent counsel amid the perplexities that might arise was, "It is better to suffer wrong than to do wrong." Her ministry in homes of affliction or where the shadows of death had fallen was prized beyond words. It was her sad privilege to prepare for burial the remains of the first two who were laid in the Purcell Cemetery, both children and both buried on the same day.

"Her last years and months were characterized by patience and resignation and appreciation for the kindness shown by those about her. Frequently she expressed the desire that, if it were the Lord's will, she might go Home. Among her last words were, 'I want to go Home.'"

MINUTES

Lake Orion, Michigan
June 29, 1915

It may be interesting to those assembled here today, especially to those who were not at the first meeting, to know how this gathering came about.

When we were called to Detroit in May, 1914, for the funeral of Uncle James MacColl, Cousin Lorne MacColl made the statement that it was too bad that we met only when there was a death in the family. This remark made an impression upon those who heard it and about one month later three of the grandchildren of Duncan and Mary MacColl, A. C. Graham, Anna MacColl Kreiman, and Crissie MacColl Geisel, met at the home of the latter, 606 South Granger Street, Saginaw, Michigan, and held the first preliminary meeting. The following temporary offices were chosen and the following executive committee named:

President—A. C. Graham of Saginaw, Michigan.
Vice-President—Hugh MacColl of Leamington, Ontario.
Secretary—Crissie MacColl Geisel of Saginaw, Michigan.
Treasurer—Arch Patterson of Newberry, Ontario.

Executive Committee—A representative of each branch:

Orpha Prestwich, Barbara Branch.
Mary J. Graham, Nancy Branch.
William W. MacColl, Bruce Branch.
Lorne MacColl, James Branch.
A. C. Graham, Rebecca Branch.
Arch Patterson, Mary Branch.
Hugh MacColl, Duncan Branch.
Crissie MacColl Geisel, Hugh Branch.

The following committees were appointed to prepare for the first reunion of the Duncan and Mary MacColl family:

PROGRAM COMMITTEE

A. C. Graham, Chairman; Dr. D. J. MacColl, Port Huron; Lorne MacColl, Detroit; Dr. A. C. MacColl, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; D. W. Graham, Wallaceburg, Ontario; James Beatty, Buffalo, New York.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE

Reba Graham, Lake Orion, Chairman; Anna MacColl Kreiman, Saginaw, Michigan; Lizzie MacColl Skinner, Detroit, Michigan; Dr. N. J. MacColl, Crosswell, Michigan; Annie Patterson Fray, Bakersfield, California; Mary MacColl Kempter, Corvallis, Montana; D. R. Graham, Cass City, Michigan.

REFRESHMENT COMMITTEE

Jessie Graham Meyers, Orleans, New York, Chairman; Mary J. Graham, Rodney, Ontario; John D. Patterson, Clachan, Ontario; Maude MacColl Fergusson, Rodney, Ontario; D. H. MacColl, Cass City, Michigan; D. C. MacColl, Canuck, Saskatchewan.

It was decided to hold the first reunion at Lake Orion, Michigan, on June 29, 1915.

The different boat landings were eagerly watched on June 28th. Many cousins came in on the same boat, but did not know that they were cousins until after they had landed and had been introduced to each other. The reception committee had planned an interesting way to introduce the members of the different families to each other. They had prepared tags which read, "I am (Crissie MacColl Geisel.) Who are you?" You can better imagine than I can describe the eagerness and joy with which we awaited the coming of each boat.

A pleasing program was given by the fourth generation on the evening of June 28th at Arcadia Cottage, the headquarters of the Rebecca Branch.

The morning of the 29th was cloudy and early in the day it began to rain. The weather did not in any way dim the enthusiasm of anyone for, although visiting wasn't scheduled to begin until after breakfast, many began to make the rounds of the various cottages soon after daybreak and by breakfast-time the tables where the members of each branch were supposed to have breakfast together were full of visitors and everyone was having a wonderful time.

The large auditorium had been secured for the main program and for dinner at noon. The tables were set for seventy-five and every place was occupied. Such a great quantity of food was brought that there was enough left from dinner so that we had supper together also. The temporary president requested us to leave the dinner tables by generations. There were none present from the first generation and only one, Hugh MacColl of Cass City, Michigan, from the second generation. He walked alone to the seat assigned him in the center section. Following him were the wives of the members of the second generation, Mary MacColl, wife of Hugh MacColl; Margaret MacColl, widow of Duncan D. MacColl; and Selina MacColl, widow of James D. MacColl. Then came the third generation, twenty-two in all and following them the fourth generation of whom there were thirty-seven. Of the fifth generation there was but one, Raymond (Buddie) Graham, son of Alex, grandson of D. R., and great-grandson of Rebecca.

Now there were those among us who were not of us by blood, and whom we called "foreigners." There were fifteen of them. They soon declared their intentions and before the program of the afternoon was over they had been admitted into the citizenship of our family.

Hugh MacColl, son of Duncan and Mary MacColl, was the first speaker on the program. He told us with much feeling about the outstanding characteristics of his parents and emphasized the courageous side of his father's life. Mary MacColl spoke next and in a very few words expressed her great joy in being able to be present. The next speaker was Margaret MacColl and she spoke especially of Duncan MacColl as a perfect gentleman and told of many instances of his gentleness. Selina MacColl expressed her pleasure in being able to be with such a happy company. At this a cheer was given for the absent ones and a wish that they might have some of the inspiration of that hour.

The first one of the third generation to speak was D. R. Graham of the Rebecca Branch. He spoke of grandfather's kind-heartedness and his real love in serving others. He said that he was only sorry that he had not told grandfather how much he thought of him. His advice was to not wait until those we love are gone and then regret that we had not told them all the things we wished we had and that we had intended to say to them, but to tell them now, today, to send them the flowers while they are living and can enjoy them. Dr. D. J. MacColl represented the Duncan D. Branch. He spoke of grandfather as a good physician and grandmother as a great reader and the most unselfish person that he ever knew. He also spoke of his own father who had passed away twenty-three years previously. His father, he said, was a man of great patience and the soul of goodness. Arch Patterson represented the family of Mary and spoke of his grandmother as one who had taken the place of a mother in their home. A. A. Graham and his wife then sang for us. They were accompanied by Ercell Graham. The family of Nancy was represented by D. W. Graham who spoke of grandfather as the leading factor in shaping the affairs of the Township of Aldboro. He stated that grandfather was the doctor, the lawyer, and the judge, a clever man, and that when he was called to serve others he went without remuneration. He also spoke of the noble heritage of honor left us by Uncle Duncan. Hattie MacColl Taylor represented the family of James and expressed their joy in being a part of this family tree. The families of Barbara and Bruce were not represented. Rev. R. H. Munro spoke in behalf of the "foreigners" and declared that they were fellow-citizens. He also spoke of grandfather as a man who knew his Bible, of grandmother as a sweet woman, and of Uncle Duncan as the one who had been instrumental in his becoming a Christian.

The fourth generation sang "Tipperary." Alex Graham told a story of a preacher's false teeth and A. A. and A. C. Graham sang a duet entitled "We're on the Way to Canaan's Land." A delightful solo was sung by Grace MacColl Brown who responded to an encore. Hughferd Geisel played a violin solo accompanied by Harold Munro.

Lorne MacColl spoke with much feeling of his father and how his death was instrumental in bringing about this gathering today. Dr. Neil MacColl, realizing the opportunity to say what nice things he had to say about Arch Patterson, did so at this time and told of Little Arch's kindness to children and how he stuffed sparrows for him and what an impression it made on Dr. Neil's life. Ercell Graham of the fourth generation spoke of grandmother's kindly face and of how her influence was still with the fourth generation.

During the business meeting it was moved and seconded that we elect Hugh MacColl, son of Mary and Duncan MacColl, Honorary President. The motion was carried. The following officers were elected for the next two years:

President—A. C. Graham.
Vice-President—Lorne MacColl.
Secretary—Crissie MacColl Geisel.
Treasurer—Arch Patterson.

It was moved, supported, and carried that we meet again in two years. The place of meeting and the time was left to the executive committee to decide. A motion was made that the President appoint the various committees. The motion was carried. A motion was made that the organization be known as "The Duncan and Mary MacColl Family Tree." The motion was carried.

A trio was rendered by Frances and Mildred Skinner and Rena MacColl. They were accompanied by Mildred Skinner.

Just as the shadows were falling and we had finished our evening meal together, Russell Graham sang "The End of a Perfect Day," accompanied by his sister, Ercell, on the violin. This was a most fitting close, for, in spite of the weather it had been most perfect.

It was necessary for some to go back to their homes so good-byes were said and the evening was spent in general visitations. On the morning of the 30th the taking of pictures and the farewells of those who had to go home occupied the time. Evening found only the campers at Lake Orion.

Thus ended the first chapter of the history of the Duncan and Mary MacColl Family Tree.

CRISSIE MacCOLL GIESEL, Secretary.

MINUTES

Lake Orion
July 1st-4th, 1917

The second reunion of the Duncan and Mary MacColl Family Tree was held at Lake Orion on July 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th, 1917.

Good music, good speaking, good eats, and a general good time was enjoyed by all.

This record is incomplete on account of the death of the Secretary.

CRISSIE MacCOLL GIESEL.

No reunion of the Duncan and Mary MacColl Family Tree was held in 1919 on account of the World War.

MINUTES

Lake Orion July 2nd-3rd-4th, 1921

The third reunion of the Duncan and Mary MacColl Family Tree was held at Lake Orion on July 2nd, 3rd and 4th, 1921. There were sixty-seven present.

A banquet was held on the platform of the Auditorium on July 2nd. The tables fairly groaned under the weight of the many good things brought by the women of the various branches. The blessing, "Be Present At Our Table, Lord," was sung in unison. Immediately following the banquet a program was given in the main part of the Auditorium. The meeting was called to order by the President, A. C. Graham. Roll was called by branches and was responded to by the branch representations. The only living member of the second generation was Aunt Barbara. There were present from the various other branches:

Rebecca Branch—twenty present.
Nancy Branch—two present.
Duncan D. Branch—eight present.
Hugh Branch—eleven present.
Mary Branch—five present.
James Branch—twenty present.
Barbara Branch—one present.

Nellie Shaw Miller of Ridgetown, Ontario, sang a number of Scotch songs. Among them were, "We'd Better Bide a'Wee" and "Annie Laurie."

Mary MacColl spoke feelingly of Uncle Duncan MacColl. She concluded by saying that Uncle Duncan's name could be held up as a synonym of honor and that she was glad that her children had such a man for their grandfather.

Most unique and attractive badges were prepared by the reception committee of which Lorne MacColl was chairman. These were distributed to everyone and enough were left over so that some were sent to those who were absent.

Mary MacColl Kempter had come from Montana for the express purpose of attending the reunion. She said that it was worthwhile, even at the loss of their crop on the farm that year, to make the trip because she felt that she was among the "best people on earth."

The committee on resolutions made the following report:

"We, the members of the Duncan and Mary MacColl Family Tree, assembled at Lake Orion on this first day of July, 1921, do adopt the following resolutions:

First—"Resolved that the sympathy of the assembly be extended to the Branch of Hugh on the death of Hugh MacColl, July 26th, 1917; to the Rebecca Branch on the death of Jessie Graham Myers, November 29th, 1920; and to the James Branch on the death of Alton Bourlier, October 27th, 1919."

Second—"Resolved that the assembly extend hearty thanks to the officers of the organization for the untiring efforts that have made this reunion possible."

Third—"Resolved that we extend our thanks and offer congratulations to those who, at considerable sacrifice to themselves, have traveled long distances to be present at this meeting."

Fourth—"Resolved that we extend a hearty welcome to Nellie Shaw Miller, daughter of a sister of Mary McCollum MacColl, who has not heretofore attended our reunions."

Fifth—"Resolved that every member here present make an extra effort to attend subsequent meetings and exert all possible influence to encourage absent members to attend."

Sixth—"Resolved that this assembly express their gratitude and appreciation to the Assembly Association for the use of the Auditorium and for all other privileges granted."

Signed: D. J. MacCOLL,
MRS. LORNE MacCOLL,
GEORGE E. BIGGE.

The nominating committee reported as follows:

President—A. C. Graham.

Vice-President—Lorne MacColl.

Secretary—Crissie MacColl Giesel.

Treasurer—Delbert Patterson.

Historian—Hattie MacColl Taylor.

It was moved and supported that the next meeting of the reunion be held during the summer of 1923. The exact date and place of meeting was to be decided by the committee and officers, Reba J. Graham, Chairman, and D. J. MacColl, Secretary.

The finance committee passed the hat and reported that there had been enough money collected to take care of the entire expense of the reunion. The finance committee was composed of the following: Lorne MacColl, Chairman, Hugh MacColl and D. W. Graham.

On Sunday, July 3rd, at three-thirty P. M. a praise service was conducted by Rev. Robert Munro. The music was provided by a choir composed of members of the various Branches who could and would sing. In the evening a Galilean service was held at West Shore Dock. Words fail to express the beauties of the setting for such a service. As the sun goes down behind the trees and is reflected in the water, it makes one feel inspired to better living and feel that all nature surely showeth forth the Glory of our Heavenly Father. A large crowd of campers gathered with us about the landing, some in boats and others seated on the hillside. Everyone listened with keen appreciation to the inspiring address of our President, A. C. Graham. The subject that he had chosen for the occasion was "Personal Accountability." Mr. Griffith of Detroit sang a solo.

On Monday a picnic luncheon was served at Cousin Reba's cottage. Preparations had been made to serve the meal outside, but a storm coming up unexpectedly drove us inside where in spite of the weather we all enjoyed ourselves immensely. After luncheon the executive committee met at the boat-house occupied by Dr. D. J. MacColl. It was moved and supported that the Branch representatives send the names and addresses of any members added to the different families either by marriage or by birth and the names of those lost by death to the Secretary at least twice a year. The motion was carried.

The time and place of the next meeting was discussed. It was moved and seconded that we meet in Orion in 1923 on the Saturday before the Fourth of July and hold Sunday services. It was suggested that everyone plan their vacations at that time. The 1925 meeting was discussed and it was thought that Aldborough Plains would be a very suitable place to meet.

We all sang together one verse of "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," and then were dismissed by the Mizpah Benediction.

Signed: CRISSIE MacCOLL GIESEL, Secretary.

MINUTES

Lake Orion June 30th to July 2nd, 1923

The fourth reunion of the Duncan and Mary MacColl Family Tree was held at Lake Orion on June 30th and July 1st and 2nd, 1923.

The committee on arrangements secured for us accommodations at the Assembly Inn and during the whole course of the reunion we were lodged and had our meals there.

The various families arrived throughout the day on Saturday. On Sunday we held our devotional services in the Auditorium.

The banquet was served on Monday at the Assembly Inn. The blessing, "Be Present At Our Table, Lord," was sung and the Doxology repeated. After the banquet we retired to the hotel parlors to hold our business session and program. The meeting was called to order by the President, A. C. Graham. B-Sept. 5, 1809 Grandparents were Alexander and Jane Love Armour.

ous. Married Frank R. Myers. Had five children. Lottie M. married Sidney I. Wheat, Clifton Springs, N. Y. They have two girls and three boys. Ina Ruth married Leigh N. Weyneth of Clifton Springs, N. Y., and has two boys and a girl. Lynn Graham did service in the army during the World War. He married Ada Mildred Tucker, of Buffalo, N. Y., and has one daughter, Dorothy June. W. Dewey married Marion K. Bucher, of Buffalo, N. Y., and has one child, Doris Janet. Alice Rebecca married Henry W. Chase, of Rochester, N. Y. They have two sons. The "Jessieites" are all New Yorkers. She died at 60 and is buried at Orleans, N. Y. She was faithful and happy to attend reunions.

Archibald (Arch) C., fourth son, started teaching school in Michigan at seventeen. Married Frances (Fannie) E. Brown and settled in Freiburger, Sanilac County. While he continued to teach and later to fill various offices, such as postmaster, supervisor and customs officer, his dutiful and efficient wife took charge of the general store, managed the farm and cared for the family of six (all boys but four). She crowned her remarkable life of 64 years by a beautiful exit, dearly loved, March, 1928, burial at Cass City, Michigan. Sheriff of the county in 1910-12; 1913 appointed State Salt Inspector by Governor W. N. Ferris; 1920 Federal Prohibition Director of Michigan under Woodrow Wilson; since 1924 Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Kentucky. Four of the children, Ercell, Russell, Joanna and Curtis, completed college preparatory work at the Ferris Institute, Big Rapids, Michigan. Ercell and Joanna secured life certificates at Ypsilanti State Normal and Ercell was in charge of County Normal work at Blissfield for several years, after teaching in rural schools (two where her father had taught). She married Geo. E. Bigge, who became Professor of Economics at the University of Michigan, where he graduated and later joined the faculty of Brown University at Providence, R. I. God called the first two of their dear children, Elizabeth and Laddie, in tender years and blessed them with four more.

Russell E. taught a year and finished a Commercial Course, including salesmanship, at Ferris Institute. He chose aviation when called to serve in the World War and was assigned to the office of Quartermaster at Portland, Oregon. At the close of the war, he brought from Portland, Rene R. Garrett for his wife. They were blessed with two daughters and a son.

Joanna A. taught and worked her way through the University of Michigan, took a year at Columbia University and made two trips to Paris, specializing in French and English and teaches in Detroit.

Archibald (A.) Curtis, while attending M. A. C., Lansing, entered the College Military Training Service shortly before the Armistice, but in time to contract a severe case of the "Flu." He married Gertrude Maurer and took up salesmanship in Detroit.

Frances L. secured her degree at the University of Michigan, taught three years and married Dr. John M. Brewer in Detroit. They have a promising boy, John (Jackie) Burton.

Majessa M., the youngest, completed her University course at Ann Arbor, where she specialized in Health and Physical Education, and teaches in Fordson, Michigan.

Mary Ethel, second daughter, while yet quite young, married Robert H. Munro, who taught the Old Home Oak-Grove School and then entered the ministry, attended Toronto College and served acceptably a number of churches. His sermon at 1927 reunion on "Heaven" will be long remembered. Mary was always active, devoted and helpful. Of their four children, one died in infancy: Alma Hazel married Basil MacColl. They have two children and a home in Detroit. Olive Ethel married Hurley L. Taylor. They have one daughter and live in Grand Blanc, Michigan; Harold Graham, the youngest, for many years an accountant with General Motors at Flint and Detroit. He was fatally injured by an auto truck in Grand Blanc, June, 1929, and is buried there.

Rebecca J. (Reba), third daughter, spent her early years on the homestead in Aldboro. Later she came to Detroit and summered at beautiful Lake Orion, Michigan. For several years she has wintered in St. Petersburg, Florida. Although she remains in single blessedness, she claims a larger family than any of the rest. See Isaiah 54-1. She leans heavily on the Scriptures and stands for the faith of the fathers.

Hugh Bruce remained for a time on the homestead, then sold it, and took up police work at Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario. He married Isabella Spencer. He has served as Councilman and Chief of Police for a number of years. They are blessed with five children: Hugh Cecil Spencer, Gwendolyn Isabel, Margery De Nice, Arnold Alexander, and Robert Lynn.

William and Neil James died in infancy. (See record).

"Her children rise up and call her blessed" may be well said of

REBECCA MACCOLL GRAHAM.

The scripture text at her funeral service:—"Enoch walked with God and was not for God took him," described her devout Christian character. Her favorite hymns—"I've Found the Pearl of Greatest Price" and "Nothing But the Blood of Jesus"—shall ring down through the years and fill the hearts and thrill the souls of those who cherish the memory and follow the example of this blessed Mother of the Rebecca branch. Her most fervent prayer was for her children "not for long life or for riches but that their souls should be saved."

DUNCAN D. BRANCH

Duncan D., the second son of Duncan and Mary MacColl, was foreman of the Globe Oil Company during his young manhood. After marriage he bought the Pump factory of Mr. Yates of Orford, and moved the factory to Clachan where he manufactured and sold pumps throughout the district from Chatham to St. Thomas. He also owned and managed a general wood workshop and a blacksmith shop and was Postmaster at Clachan, Ontario. About 1890 he moved to the old homestead in Aldboro where he continued farming until the time of his death.

Duncan D. died in Detroit, Michigan, on May 23rd, 1892 after an illness of five days which was brought about by an acute attack of appendicitis from which he had suffered since early youth.

The funeral services were conducted by the Independent Order of Foresters. Interment took place in the Purcell Cemetery at Aldboro, Ontario.

It seems to the writer that no more fitting description of his life can be given than by the following extracts from a letter dated June 7th, 1892 and written to his widow, Margaret Munro MacColl, by one of his former pastors, John G. Hastings.

"Dear D. D.! How fragrant to me is his memory! One of the best, the truest men I ever knew. As a counselor and advisor of a pastor, in my estimation, he was a prince among deacons, and I have always considered it especially fortunate that in my early ministry I should have been brought in contact with him. How often in times of difficulty his gentle spirit has restrained my impatience and counselled forbearance and forgiveness, and his admonitions fallen like oil upon the troubled waters! And he was always right. I never knew or saw him in an unfavorable light. To me, at least, Heaven broke in upon our little prayer-meetings when he rose to speak or lead in prayer. He brought us near the Master, because near himself. As Pastor and deacon, we were much together, in visits oft, and when we thus went out, there were always three of us, for we had the blessed fellowship with Jesus by the way. Many a prayer was offered upon the highway for one and another in whose welfare we were especially interested and by him for the young Pastor by his side. As his great loving heart yearned over his brethren in the faith, his charity covered a multitude of sins. He prayed for the peace of Jerusalem and, if not in temporal things, then in spiritual life he prospered, for he loved her much. Contact with him made a better and a stronger man of me. The world, the circle in which he moved, the church he served will miss him.

"I know not the circumstances of his removal, but from what I do know of the poor health, the sufferings of late years, what a release was his! He lived on earth as seeing the invisible, and now what rapturous vision is his. He has laid down the weapons of his earthly warfare to put on the victor's crown. He sings, today, to a richer melody and in truer time the grand sweet song of Moses and the Lamb.

"And the dear boys, always 'the boys.' As he followed the Saviour so may they follow in their father's steps. Like him, may each one of them be pillars in the House of Our God, and leave behind them on the plastic lives of men as blessed, as saintly an impress as he has left."

Margaret Munro MacColl, widow of Duncan D. MacColl, has been living in Moosejaw, Saskatchewan, with her son, Lorne. Previous to this trip into the West she has attended most of the MacColl reunions and, although she is now in her eighty-second year, she writes that she is making arrangements to come to Michigan this summer and hopes to meet with us in August at the W. B. A. Camp at Lakeport.

Duncan John MacColl, oldest son of Duncan and Margaret Munro MacColl, was born in Clachan, Ontario, November 24th, 1868. His early education was in Oak Grove School in Aldboro and in Kent County Model School, Chatham, Ontario. He then attended school in Ann Arbor, Michigan, for one year after which he taught school for three years in and near Rodney, Ontario. From there he went to Detroit, Michigan, where he was graduated from the Detroit Medical College in 1893. He practiced in Elkton, Michigan, for thirteen years and in Croswell, Michigan, for six years. He moved from Croswell to Port Huron, Michigan, where he has practiced for fourteen years, specializing in obstetrics. In 1896 he married Helen Marr Clarke of Detroit and three children have been born to them, Clarke Munro, February 13th, 1898, and twins, Duncan John II, and Helen Marr, October 7th, 1900.

Clarke, the older son, attended Hillsdale College for two years and then the University of Michigan for four years, graduating in Medicine. He married Amanda McKinney of Oklahoma, July 9th, 1925. A little daughter has come to them, Mary MacColl. Dr. Clarke MacColl is now in charge of the Receiving Department and Diagnostic Clinic of the Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, Michigan.

Helen Marr MacColl was graduated from Hillsdale College in Domestic Science. After teaching in that department in the Port Huron High School for two years, she accompanied her mother and father to Florida for the winter. While there she decided to accept a position to teach in the Hawaiian Islands where she met and married Herman Alexander, youngest son of A. C. Alexander of Honolulu and a descendant of three of the Missionary families, Bishop, Baldwin, and Alexander, who went to the islands in 1823, 1831, and 1832, respectively. Two children have been born to them, Duncan John, and Helen MacColl. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander live at Wailuku on the Island of Maui, Territory of Hawaii, where he has charge of one of the branches of the Baldwin Banks.

In the spring of 1927, Dr. and Mrs. D. J. MacColl took a trip out to see their daughter, going by way of Havana and the Panama Canal, thence to Los Angeles and San Francisco and then on to Honolulu.

Duncan John MacColl, II, twin brother of Helen MacColl Alexander, attended Hillsdale College for two years and then went to the University of Michigan where he was graduated in 1923 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. He then took post-graduate work at Harvard University for a year. In 1924 he entered the Detroit College of Law and was graduated in 1927. He is now practicing law in Port Huron, Michigan. In 1928 he attended the Republican National Convention in Kansas City, having been appointed principal assistant Sergeant-at-arms. In the fall of 1928 he was elected State Representative from the first district of St. Clair County.

Dougald Cowan MacColl, second son of Duncan D. and Margaret Munro MacColl, was born at Clachan, Ontario, February 6th, 1871. In October, 1893 he married Christina Bloom. They moved to Saskatchewan in 1905 and in 1912 took up homesteads for themselves and their son, Earl. In addition to his farming interests Dougald was engaged until 1924 as a contractor in the construction of railroads. Mr. and Mrs. MacColl are the parents of four children.

Earl Hughjean, the oldest, was born December 31st, 1894, at Aldboro, Ontario. He was married on December 4th, 1919 to Barbara Diebolt. They have no children. Earl is an electrician and was in charge of the City Plant at Malta, Montana, until 1927. He went to the Pacific Coast for a year and then returned to Bracken, Saskatchewan, in 1928 where he opened a sales and service garage.

Margaret Jennie Neilene, the oldest daughter, was born October 8th, 1902, in Aldboro, Ontario. She was married to Clarence Blackmer on June 16th, 1925. They live in Bracken and are the parents of a daughter, Audrey Anne, who was born June 9th, 1929.

Helen Munro MacColl, the third child, was born May 2nd, 1904, at Aldboro, Ontario. She died at Edmund, Saskatchewan, May 23rd, 1907, and was buried at Moosomin.

Marjorie Helen MacColl, the youngest, was born at Moosomin, Saskatchewan, November 10th, 1912.

Hugh Alexander MacColl, the third son of Duncan D. and Margaret Munro MacColl, was born in Clachan, Ontario, June 3rd, 1873. He left the farm early in the century and moved to Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, where he engaged in real estate. For the past ten years he has been living in Windsor, Ontario, and is engaged in real estate. He married Mary Kennedy October 8th, 1902. They have two sons.

Duncan D., the older son, was born August 17th, 1903 at Clachan, Ontario. Dougald Kennedy, the younger son, was born July 25th, 1905 at Clachan, Ontario. They attended public school in Leamington, Chatham, and Windsor, Ontario, and the Windsor Collegiate at Windsor. Following their graduation from the Collegiate they attended Johnston Bible College in Krimbralin Heights, Tennessee, for two years. After their graduation there they studied at Eureka College, Eureka, Illinois, and were graduated after two years with Bachelors of Arts degrees. Duncan then preached for a year at Everton Christian Church, Everton, Ontario, and Dougald in Central Christian Church, Toronto, Ontario. They then attended Butler University, Indianapolis, Indiana, where they were graduated in 1929 with Masters of Arts degrees. Dougald married Ethel McKinley August 25th, 1926. They have one daughter, Joanna. Duncan is not married.

Neil James, the fourth son of Duncan D. and Margaret Munro MacColl, was born August 27th, 1876 at Clachan, Ontario. He attended the Oak Grove School in Aldboro and the Detroit College of Medicine in Detroit, Michigan. He was graduated from the Indiana College of Medicine in 1898. He practiced with his brother, D. J., in Elkton, Michigan until 1900 when he moved to Whittemore, Michigan, where he practiced until 1911. He then moved to Croswell, Michigan where he took over the practice of his brother, D. J. He still lives in Croswell although he has retired from active practice. On October 16th, 1900 he was married to Jennie Hanes Robb in Bay City, Michigan, at the Broadway Baptist Church by Rev. E. S. Wilson, a former pastor of his home church at Clachan, Ontario. During the winter of 1922 Dr. and Mrs. MacColl visited the Holy Land, Egypt, and Turkey, the ports of the Mediterranean and some of the European countries. In 1925 they took a cruise to the West Indies and South American Countries. In 1926 they went around the world on the "Empress of Scotland" and again visited the Holy Land and Egypt. Their trip included India, China, Japan, the East Indies, Philippines, and Hawaiian Islands. The winter of 1928 and 1929 was spent in California.

Bruce Lorne MacColl, the youngest son of Duncan D. and Margaret Munro MacColl, was born October 15th, 1883 at Clachan, Ontario. He lived on the old farm until 1906 when he moved to Manitoba where he engaged in the harness and shoe business. He married Rena Robertson, the daughter of the resident Baptist minister, in 1911. They have two daughters, Lorena, born May 17th, 1914, and Neilene Robertson, born September 12th, 1916. In June, 1919 the family moved to Hamiota, Manitoba, where they lived for six years. They then moved to Moosejaw where they are now living. Both Mr. and Mrs. MacColl are active workers in the Baptist Church.

HUGH BRANCH

William Wallace Hugh, son of Duncan and Mary MacColl was born in Aldboro, Ontario, where he grew to manhood, assisting his father on the farm.

At the age of 22, in the year 1865, he was united in marriage to Mary Patterson. Miss Patterson was a member of a family of eight children. She was known as one of the most skillful weavers in the community. She is still living and is eighty-eight years of age..

Shortly after their marriage they moved to Bothwell and Mr. MacColl was employed at the oil wells. Later they moved to a farm near Bothwell. In 1874 they again moved to Bothwell where they managed a hotel for three years. In 1877 they moved to Florence, Ont. where they had a like business and after one year they moved back to the old farm. On the farm six of the eight children were born.

In 1881 Mr. MacColl purchased a 200 acre farm in Greenleaf, Michigan. That summer he cleared 10 acres and sowed it to wheat. It was during the fall harvest and wheat sowing season that the forest fires swept over that section and he was trapped in the field by the flames. His only escape was by descending into a well located in one corner of the field. He covered his head with a wet blanket. When he again came to the surface the wagon loaded with seed wheat was on fire but was extinguished without damage. The 10 acres yielded 403 bushels which he sold to farmers, who had lost their entire crop.

The family moved to Michigan in the spring of 1882 and lived in a small shanty. A log house was built shortly after and still stands on the old homestead. In 1887 another daughter, Lillie Rebecca, was born.

In 1889 a frame barn was built and at that time was one of the largest barns in the community. By this time the farm had been cleared with the exception of a few acres that were used for pasture. Mr. MacColl was considered a very successful farmer.

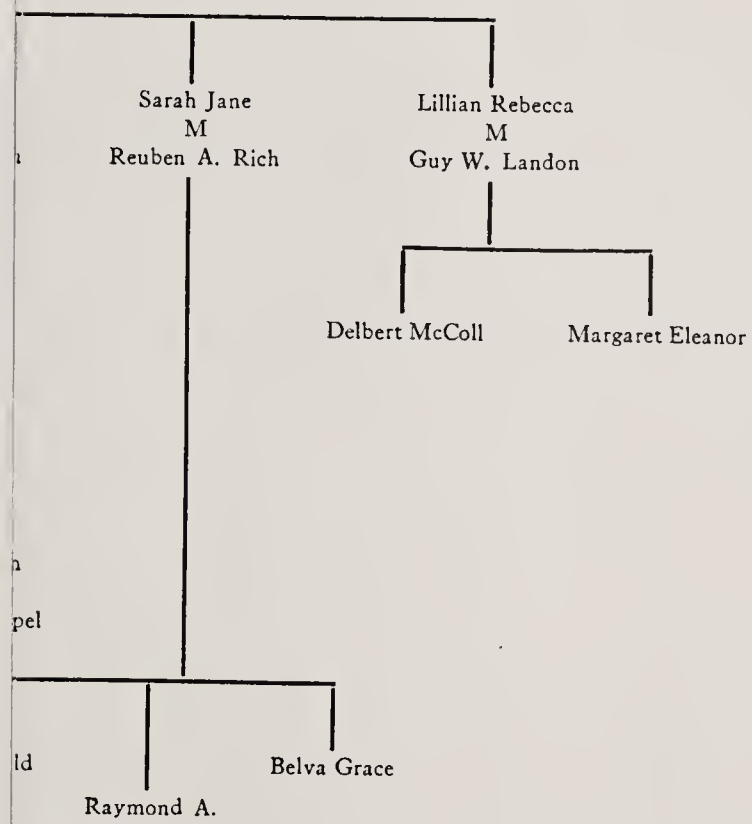

In 1899 Mr. and Mrs. MacColl with their two youngest daughters moved to Cass City where they conducted a feed barn and restaurant for a number of years and then retired to private life.

In the winter of 1913, on a trip south, they spent some time with their son, Dr. A. C. MacColl in Oklahoma City.

They celebrated their Golden Wedding in 1915 with five of the seven living children present.

Mr. and Mrs. MacColl were both members of the Baptist Church at Cass City, Michigan. Mr. MacColl served as deacon for a number of years and was acting in that office at the time of his death July 26, 1917.

He had been in failing health for about a year. One day as he drew near the river of Death and waited to hear the dip of the golden oar of the boatman, who would carry him to the better shore of the spirit land, he called to one of the daughters and asked to have published, after he was gone, an article thanking everyone for the many kindnesses shown through his long illness and for every expression of love and sympathy. From the bottom of his heart he wished to thank everyone. This request was fulfilled and closed with this poem by James Whitcomb Riley.

I cannot say and I will not say
That he is dead—he is just away
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.

And You—O You, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There, as the love of Here.
Think of him as the same, I say;
He is not dead—he is just away.

1st Child

MARY BELLE

Mary Belle MacColl Kempter was an enthusiastic and tireless worker in the organization and administration of many fraternal orders. Her whole life was devoted to this work and it was largely through her influence and guidance that many of the organizations of which she was a member attained the success that they did. The following are excerpts of a letter written by her son, Earl Kempter, which may in a measure help us to realize the extent of her endeavors.

"It is hard for me to realize just how much of a force my mother was in the fraternal activities in which she was engaged, knowing her only as a human being and Mother. I don't believe that I ever appreciated what she meant to others until her passing and only then did it begin to dawn on me, for her activities were taken as a matter of course by me from childhood."

"Soon after her marriage, Mother became interested in the Rebekahs. It was her first fraternal experience and as time went on, it was this order in which she was most active for the greatest part of her life. She went through the chairs in the Rebekahs and then began taking interest in parliamentary law and lodge work in general and at one time or another held membership in twelve different organizations some of them now out of existence and forgotten. But, in every one she held office and passed at least one term in the presiding officer's chair. Some of the organizations were of national scope, such as the Ladies of the Orange Lodge of which she became state president of Michigan; W. A. P. A. of which she was national secretary; the United Friends in which order she held the chair for nine years; Ladies of the Maccabees; and Royal Neighbors.

"In 1908 we moved to Montana. At first, in the midst of new surroundings and new friends, the task of making a new home occupied most of Mother's time. I might say, too, at this time that at no time, in spite of the many outside duties and interests that Mother had, did she neglect her home and the duties of a mother. This is perhaps the reason why I never realized that she was the least bit different from any other boy's mother. In a short time the people in the valley where we lived began to recognize Mother's ability in fraternal work and more and more she was drawn into the organization again at first as an advisor, but finally becoming interested herself again and getting into the actual work of the Order. Most of her interest was in the order in which she was first interested, the Rebekahs. She became Warden of the State Assembly of Montana, District President of the sixth district of Montana, Vice-President and finally President of the State Assembly. The latter office was her last active part in the work.

"Despite her activities in the Rebekahs, she found time to hold office in the Eastern Star. Mother was Worthy Matron in 1916, organized the Women's Club of Corvallis, and became president of the Federated Women's Clubs of Ravalli County.

"The great success of Mother's life can be attributed, I think, to the fact that she was a very forceful woman with a natural ability to lead. Her associates always looked to her to steer the course and her record as a presiding officer will stand long in the memories of her friends and fellow-workers.

"Mother passed away October 30th, 1927 after a long siege of diabetes. In accordance with her wishes, expressed and written, cremation followed and the ashes were scattered on the Bitter Root River, which she had come to love.

"With a word about Dad and me as you asked, I'll close. Nothing of particular interest centers in us. We are both very ordinary persons, doing as well as the average and have recently joined forces and are living together here in the capitol of Washington and are very content. The flower business belongs to me and, while my name is not printed in the letterhead, I write the checks and sign them as well as sweep the floor. We are both in good health and are both optimists. One thing we have promised is to be at the clan reunion in August, 1929.

"Our permanent address is 511 Washington Street, Olympia, Washington, and we shall be very glad to keep in touch with you and really feel that we want to get closer than we have in the past."

NANCY BRANCH

Nancy Ann MacColl, third daughter of Duncan and Mary MacColl, was born June 26th, 1845 at Birches Corners, Ontario. She was married to William Graham of Aldboro, Ontario, on January 22nd, 1863. Four children were born to them, Duncan W., Euphemia, Mary Jane and Alexander. Mrs. Graham died February 27th, 1871, and was buried in Purcell Cemetery, Aldboro, Ontario.

Duncan W. Graham, the eldest son, was a very prominent man in Dunwich Municipal, Church, and Masonic affairs and much esteemed by all who knew him. He was one of the most widely known and highly respected citizens of West Elgin County. He was born near Clachan in the Township of Aldboro and resided there for many years, serving during his residence there as Assessor for the township for twenty years. The family moved to Wallacetown where Duncan again served as assessor for his new township, Dunwich, for a number of years. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, but in 1925 joined the United Church where he acted as chairman of the managing board and also as chairman of the building committee. He also served for many years as president of the Wallacetown branch of the Western Ontario Bible Society. He was widely known as a building contractor. His wife was the former Emma Lyons of Wallacetown. Duncan Graham died at the age of sixty-six. One of the regrettable features of his long illness was the fact that, although he gave such valuable service in connection with the building of the new United Church, he was never able to see it after it was completed. He was buried in a beautiful little spot near Lake Erie in St. Peter's Cemetery, Tyrconnell, Ontario. The Masonic Lodge of Rodney, Ontario, conducted the services.

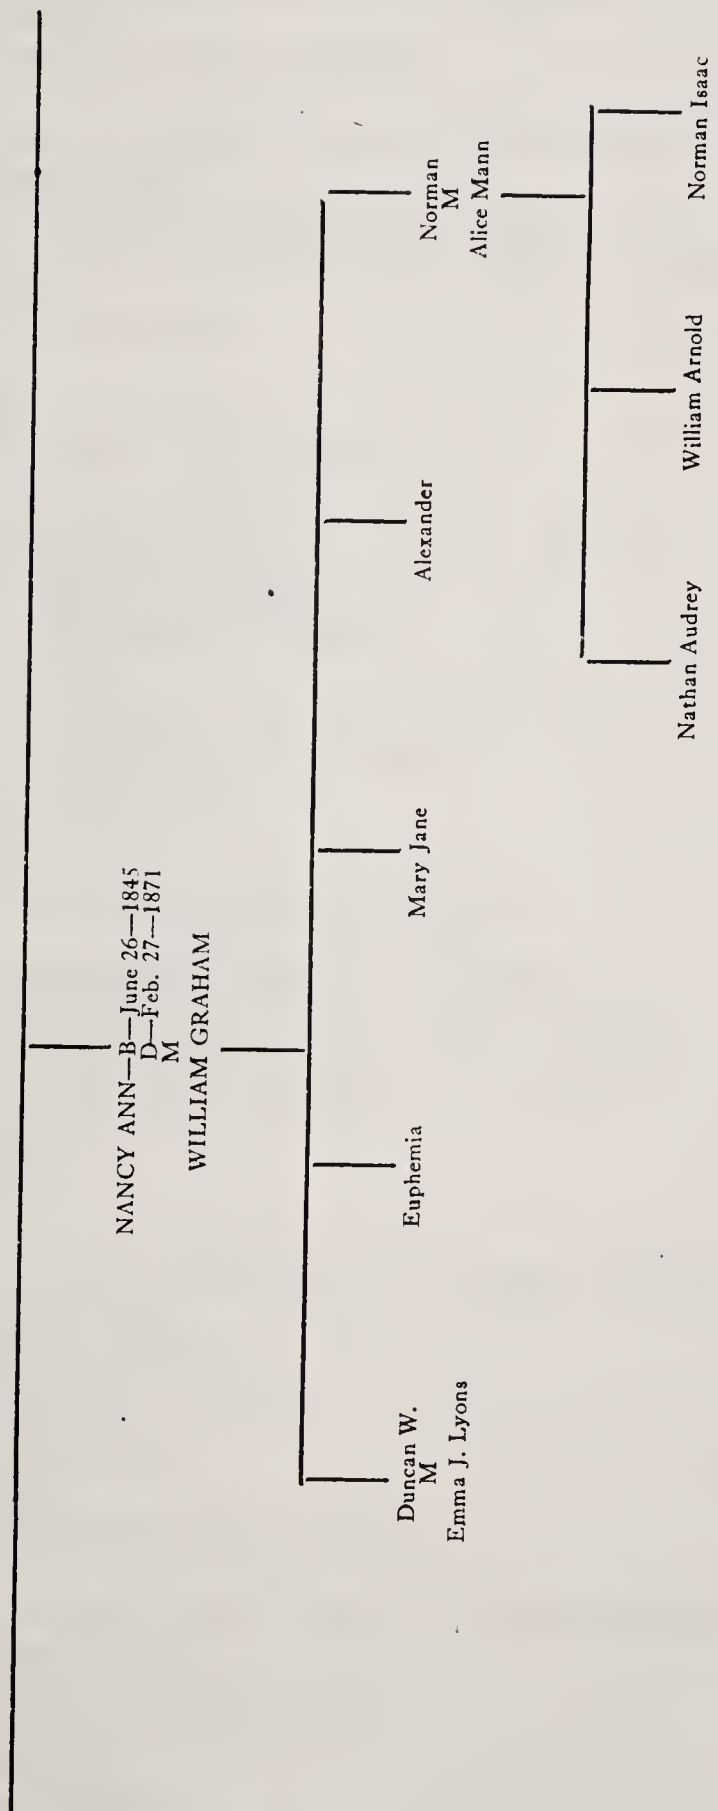

Euphemia Graham, second child of Nancy and William Graham, was born July 17th, 1865, at Aldboro, Ontario. She died August 17th, 1866, at the age of one year and one month and was buried in Purcell Cemetery.

Mary Jane Graham, the third child, was born August 18, 1867 at Aldboro, Ontario. She is a practical nurse and her address is Box 444, Hagersville, Ontario.

Norman Graham was born December 17, 1888. He was married to Alice Mann, September 5, 1911. They have three sons, Nathan Audrey, who was born at Canfield, Ontario February 21, 1912; William Arnold, who was born at Canfield July 12, 1915; and Norman Isaac, who was born at Hagerville, Ontario December 5, 1922. JAMES D. BRANCH

James D., the ninth child born of Duncan and Mary MacColl, was the fifth son and was born at Aldboro, Ontario, on December 1, 1852. During his boyhood and early manhood days he had helped on his father's farm of two hundred acres and at an oil well near the Thames River. After his marriage he worked the farm for two years and then entered college at Woodstock, Ontario to study for the ministry. His first pastorate was at Drumbo, Ontario. On December 24, 1872 he was married to Selina Frances Allen of Mosa Township, daughter of David and Harriet Gooderham Allen of Bothwell, Ontario, and a granddaughter of Sir Simon Allen of Gold Stake, Ipswich, England, whose coat of arms in heraldry was the drawn sword with the motto "Ich Dien" which means, "I serve." The Allens had come from England about ten years before the birth of Mrs. MacColl. After leaving Canada, Mr. and Mrs. MacColl moved to Dover, Illinois, and then to Michigan. During his active ministry Rev. MacColl has served in the following churches: Brownville, Mason, Porter, Daley, Jackson, Grand Ledge, Ortonville, Goodrich, Atlas, and Millington.

While in Jackson, Michigan, he was sent as a delegate to the National Convention by the State Board of the Baptist denomination. The convention was held in Lowell, Massachusetts. During his pastorate in Millington, Michigan, he was again sent as a delegate to the National Convention. This time he went to West Virginia. In 1893 while he was at Grand Ledge, Michigan, Rev. MacColl attended the Columbia Exposition in Chicago, Illinois. While there he attended several of the meetings held by Rev. D. L. Moody in the Great Tabernacle. Rev. Moody asked Rev. MacColl to take charge of the singing. He was called many times to take charge of Evangelistic work and he was often called the "Sweet Singer of Israel."

Rev. MacColl was a Maccabee and was Past Noble Grand in the Odd Fellows. In 1907 Rev. and Mrs. MacColl with their daughter, Beulah Leota, moved to Detroit, Michigan, where Rev. MacColl took a course and later graduated in Optometry. The loss of their daughter, Beulah Leota, on Sunday evening, March 14, 1908 was a very severe shock as she died while her father was preaching in the Hudson Avenue Baptist Church where he often supplied as he also did at the Brighton Church until health no longer permitted. On May 17, 1914 Rev. MacColl passed away at his home, 1170 23rd Street, Detroit, Michigan, at the age of sixty-one years. The funeral was held in the Hudson Avenue Baptist Church. Rev. H. Sidney Bullock conducted the services. His text was taken from Ps. 37: 37; "Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace." The remains were taken by funeral car to Orion, Michigan where amid floral tributes from many friends, Rev. MacColl was laid to rest in beautiful Evergreen Cemetery. If it were true, however, that the value of human life is determined not by years, but by deeds, then the sixty-one years of his life were all that could be desired and filled to the full was the measure of human ambition.

"Death takes us unawares
And stays our hurrying feet;
The great design unfinished lies,
Our lives are incomplete."

Since the death of her husband, Mrs. MacColl has resided among her children with headquarters at 5286 Seaboldt Avenue, Detroit, Michigan. She has attended all the reunions thus far.

Rev. and Mrs. James D. MacColl were the parents of seven children, five daughters and two sons: Harriet Anna, Mary Elizabeth, Maude Selina, Duncan James Lorne, Elizabeth Rebecca Grace, David Basil Bruce, and Beulah Leota.

The eldest, Harriet Anna, married John Q. Taylor. They are the parents of five children: Inez G., Howard J., Clara Lunette, Olive Dorothy, and Basil G. Mrs. Taylor was appointed Historian at the 1921 reunion and has held that position eight years. It has been largely through her tireless efforts and persistent writing that the records which compose this booklet have been obtained. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor reside on a farm at Route 4, Clarkston, Michigan.

Inez Taylor, the eldest child of Harriet A. and John Q. Taylor, was married to Alton Roy Bourlier on June 10, 1919 at the home of her uncle, Lorne MacColl in Detroit. Alton met with an accident on October 28, 1919 and died shortly afterwards. He was buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Lake Orion, Michigan. In 1921 Inez married Ben Gilmore Warwick. They have two sons, Durant Gilmore and William Dean. Mr. and Mrs. Warwick motored in September 1922 to Charlotte, North Carolina, the home of Mr. Warwick's parents. In the summer of 1926 and again in 1927 they visited in North Carolina. The Warwick family moved to Syracuse, New York in September, 1927. Clara Taylor accompanied her sister, Inez, and family to the new home. In May, 1929 Mr. Warwick was transferred back to Detroit, Michigan. He is salesman for the Truscon Paint Company and he resides with his family at 13240 Prest Avenue, Detroit, Michigan.

Howard Taylor, the second child of Harriet A. and John Q. Taylor, motored in company with three other young men through Canada and other points in the East in a motor house during a week's vacation in 1926.

Olive D., the fourth child, visited her sister, Inez, at Syracuse, New York in the fall of 1928. She is now at Lake Clear, New York, in the Adirondack Mountains with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Skinner.

Basil, the youngest child, was also a visitor at Syracuse, New York in August, 1928.

Mary E., the second child of Rev. and Mrs. James D. MacColl, married William A. Skinner of Grand Ledge, Michigan. In the fall of 1908 Mr. Skinner retired from farming on account of ill health and spent eight months in Cuba. After his return he took up work as a contractor and carpenter in Detroit, Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner have spent several winters in Florida and one in California. Their summers until 1926 were spent in Detroit, Michigan. In 1926 they moved to Florida to live permanently. They were the parents of four daughters, Mildred Irene, Frances Maude, Olive, and Gertrude Dorothy.

Mildred Skinner married Charles E. Dwyer on August 30, 1915. They have a son and a daughter, William and Mary. Shortly after the birth of Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer moved to Los Angeles, California. In 1923 they motored to Michigan to attend the reunion and to stay for a short visit. Mr. Dwyer, an electrician, was sent as a delegate from California to the Electrical Convention held in Montreal, Quebec. Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer reside at 8760 Compton Avenue, Los Angeles, California.

Frances, the second child of Mary E. and William Skinner, married Claude F. Harris on January 1st, 1918. They have one daughter, Frances Mary. In 1923 Mrs. Harris and her daughter motored to Florida for a few weeks' visit. They were accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Skinner. Mrs. Harris was in very poor health for several years and died September 20, 1925. Frances Harris's home is now 802 Gardenia Avenue, Royal Oak, Michigan.

One daughter, Olive Skinner, died at birth and was buried near Grand Ledge, Michigan.

Gertrude, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Skinner, was graduated from Northwestern High School, Detroit, Michigan in 1923. In the winter of 1925 she visited her parents at Bonita Springs, Florida in company with her little niece, Frances Harris. While there she met Arthur B. Wardner and on September 22, 1926 they were married in Detroit, Michigan. A few days later they left for their new home in the Adirondack Mountains at Bloomingdale, New York. They have a son, Arthur B. Wardner, Jr. Mr. Wardner is an electrician.

Maude Selina, the third daughter of Rev. and Mrs. MacColl lives at 2406 Arlington Avenue, Flint, Michigan. She is the wife of Walter A. Ferguson. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson formerly lived on a farm in Rodney, Ontario. Mr. Ferguson is engaged in the real estate business. Three children were born to them. One child, James Walter, met with an accident at the age of nine years and died October 1, 1911. After the death of this child Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson went to the state of Washington and visited, while in the West, their cousins, the Kempfers in the Bitter Root Valley at Corvallis, Montana. After a few months they returned to Michigan.

Mary Lucile Ferguson married Clement D. Rushlow November 8, 1923 and resides at 1433 Oklahoma Street, Flint, Michigan. Mr. Rushlow is a pattern-maker. In the summer of 1927 they took a trip to New York for a several days' visit with their cousins, the Wardners. Mr. and Mrs. Rushlow have one son, Conrad Duncan.

Francis Allen Ferguson lives at home. In the summer of 1925 he spent a few months in the West. He has decided to be a pattern-maker.

Duncan James Lorne MacColl, the eldest son of Rev. and Mrs. MacColl, enlisted at the age of eighteen as a volunteer for the Spanish-American war. He was assigned to Company A, 33rd Regiment. He served under Captain Lucien Stewart in Cuba and was honorably discharged December 18, 1898. He then served with the rank of Corporal in the Michigan National Guards for four years. During the World War he served in the 51st Regiment, Michigan State Troops, with the rank of Captain. He has been clerk in the justice court for the past ten years and is now serving under Judge E. J. Jeffries, Records' Court, Detroit, Michigan. He is also General Commander of the Harvey M. Duffield Camp of United Spanish War Veterans and President of the Wayne County Municipal Council of United Spanish War Veterans. He was married to Bertha Hollenbeck on July 19, 1899, who was a school teacher and is very prominent in fraternal circles having held the chair of Lady Commander of Pontchartrain Hive No. 994 of the Maccabees for the past sixteen years, and is now President of the Maccabee Bed Committee and Past President of the Wayne County Association of Maccabees of Detroit. She has also been Financial Secretary and Noble Grand of Garland Rebekah Lodge No. 359. Mrs. MacColl has also been Secretary of the MacColl Family Tree since 1923. Mr. and Mrs. MacColl are the parents of three children: Ilah Mae, Rena Charlotte, and James Lorne, Jr. They reside at 5286 Seaboldt Avenue, Detroit, Michigan.

Ilah Mae, eldest child of D. J. Lorne MacColl and Bertha Hollenbeck MacColl, married Edgar T. Green on June 16, 1923. They had one son, Jack Lee, who died shortly after birth. They reside at 5021 Ivanhoe Avenue, Detroit, Michigan.

Rena C. MacColl was graduated in 1922 from Northwestern High School and in 1924 from Teachers' College. She studied to be a gymnasium teacher and is now employed in one of the Detroit Schools. In the summer of 1926 she went to Los Angeles to attend college and to visit her aunt, Grace MacColl Brown. She returned home by way of Vancouver, British Columbia.

Lorne MacColl, Jr. is a student in Northwestern High School, Detroit, Michigan. In company with his parents and his cousin, Basil Taylor, he took a trip to Washington, D. C. by way of Niagara Falls in August, 1928. While at the capitol he and Basil had the pleasure of being seated in the President's chair.

Elizabeth Rebecca Grace, fifth child of Rev. and Mrs. James D. MacColl, married Harry D. Brown. They moved to Grand Ledge, Michigan, and later to California. They have one daughter, Corene Louise. Mrs. Brown and Corene attended the reunion in 1925 at Aldboro Plains where Grace delighted the members of the clan with several solo selections and visited with relatives and friends before returning home. Mr. Brown, although a semi-invalid, is engaged in the real estate business. They reside at 607 Moore Avenue, Monterey Park, California.

Corene Brown is following in her mother's footsteps and on June 3, 1929 took part in an operetta at Los Angeles. Her instructor, Professor Dee Lash, was much delighted with her work and came to offer congratulations to the Browns. Her friends, too, came to congratulate her and the house was filled with flowers for a week. Corene's ambition is to be a "Prima Donna." In the summer of 1927 Mrs. Brown and Corene visited their cousins, Mrs. Laney Fennell, and Mrs. Jennie R. Cunningham, and their families.

David Basil Bruce, sixth child of Rev. and Mrs. James D. MacColl, married Alma Hazel Munro. They had a family of four children.

Kathryn Maxine died four days after birth.

Eileen died at birth, July 12, 1915, and was buried at Lake Orion, Michigan. Shortly after the death of Eileen Mr. and Mrs. McColl moved to Grand Ledge, Michigan, where Basil became Superintendent of the Sabbath School.
